

Studying at university? Juggling a million due dates?

Albert is your uni-approved partner to a happier life, built by students for students.

Albert will reduce your study time, improve your essays, help you learn more and focus on what you enjoy.

Using Albert you can:

- Find research relevant to your studies.
- Translate complex ideas into something easy to understand.
- Analyse data quickly and easily.
- Take notes and keep organised without printing or filing.
- Summarise your notes and readings.
- Turn your notes and summaries into podcasts.
- Get help drafting parts of your essay or report.
- Get suggestions to improve your grammar, spelling and writing.
- Make studying easier, so you can focus on new ideas and perspectives.
- Work with AI and your uni together as a team.

Take back control of your academic life!
Drop the stress and say hello to Albert.

How does it work?

Simply login through your web browser, connecting it to your mobile app. As you search for references or read research articles, just one click will upload it to Albert and your personal AI locker.

Albert then uses unique AI engines to digest and analyse your research, producing quick summaries and drafting parts of your essay. You can even upload assessment criteria and Albert can suggest how to improve your grade.

- Banish writers' block.
- Get a head start.
- Say goodbye to procrastination and study anxiety.
- Save up to 80% of your preparation and study time.

A better world AND better results!

10% of profits from Albert are invested back into students like you – we have sponsorships and bursaries that offer wholistic support for people who need help accessing a university education. This covers wellbeing, accommodation and enrolment costs - so by subscribing to Albert you're not just helping yourself study, you're helping someone else too!

Say hello to Albert.

Albert Customer Success Team
info@helloalbert.com

helloalbert.com

